The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 29, to Saturday November 2, 1751.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21st of January, O. S.}}{\text{1st of February, N. S.}}$ in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand-Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majesty's Privy-Purse, the 25th October 1751.

St. James's, October 30.

This being the Anniversary of the King's Birth-Day, His Majesty received thereupon the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction. At Noon the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; in the Evening there was a very numerous Appearance of the Nobility, &c. at the Drawing Room at Court, all dressed in the deepest Mourning; and at Night there were Bonfires, Ringing of Bells, and other Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster; but no Day is as yet appointed for celebrating the same in Form, on Account of the Mourning for his late Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

Constantinople, Sept. 21. The Plague has greatly ceased this Month; the great Mortality is over; there are only some small Remains as usual; it has left us a natural Consequence, Scarcity of some Necessaries, which the Porte is occupied at present to remedy. The Seamen, Artisans, and Labourers, are so considerably diminished by Flight and Death, that they reckon one Quarter of the Inhabitants of this Capital wanting, so that they are dispatching Commands to all the Paschas, Beglerbegs and Commandants, throughout the Empire, to send hither a new Recruit of People. The Grand Seignor is preparing to return to his Seraglio in Town. The Distemper has made great Havock in his Court and Harem. The old Druggoman of the Porte is returned, and lives easily and quietly; they have not molested him. Haggy Mehemet Pascha, who was banished to Retimo on Account of his Transactions at Bagdad, died there in Exile. The new Venetian Bailo, Signior Diedo, is arrived at Jenedos. M. de Lezze is preparing for his Departure.

Lisbon, Sept. 21. The Commissaries and Engineers appointed to set out the new Limits of the Portuguese Settlements in America, are to set sail the 26th of this Month; and have the King's Orders to deliver up the Colony of St. Sacrament to the Spaniards, agreeable to the late Treaty. His Majesty having been informed, that great Numbers of Robberies have been lately committed by a Sett of desperate Fellows in the Province of Alentejo, as well upon the Highways, as by breaking open Houses, &c. has caused an Edict to be published, in which large Rewards are offered for the apprehending of any of those Robbers; and a Tribunal of six Persons is already appointed for their Tryal, of which Don Ignace de Costa Quintela is named President.

Peterbourg,

Petersbourg, Oct. 10. By the laſt Advices we received here from our Miſſionaries in the Kingdom of Caſan, and the neighbouring Provinces, they go on very ſucceſsfully in making Converts, having brought over no leſs than 4000 Perſons, as well Men as Women, during the firſt ſix Months of the preſent Year.

Naples, Oct. 13. Laſt Sunday Night we had here, and in this Neighbourhood, the moſt violent Storm of Wind and Rain that has happened for ſome Years; the Wind blowing ſo very hard as to untile ſeveral Houſes, and force away great Numbers of Glaſs Windows. The Sieur Rota, one of the moſt eminent Merchants of this City, died here Yeſterday in a very advanced Age, and immenſely rich.

Barcelona, Oct. 13. Don Jean Eſcoiquiz, Lieutenant General of the King's Armies, on whom the King has conferred the Command of his Troops at Oran in Africa, arrived here on Monday laſt from Madrid; he is accompanied by three principal Engineers, who have Orders to repair all the Fortifications belonging to Spain on the African Coaſt; and they are to ſet ſail with the firſt fair Wind in a Man of War that has been equipped here for that Purpoſe. We have juſt received Advice, that Vice-Admiral Stuart, who has been cruizing in the Mediterranean with two of the King's Ships, has taken two Tuneſian Corſairs, and ſunk a third, upon the Coaſt of Catalonia.

Florence, Oct. 16. We learn by our laſt Advices from Corſica, that the preſent Situation of Affairs in that Iſland are very critical, ſome of the Pieves or Communities beginning already to murmur at the new Regulation that has been lately publiſhed there, and others ſeem reſolved not to ſubſcribe to it.

Stockholm, Oct. 22. Count Teſſin, Preſident of the Chancery and Governor of the Prince Royal, has renewed his Inſtances to the King for obtaining his Diſmiſſion from thoſe Employments. The Ceremony of their Majeſties Coronation is fixed for the 26th of next Month.

Hambourg, Oct. 29. The laſt Letters from Dantzick ſay, that the Magiſtrates of that City had at length publiſhed, on the 19th Inſtant, the Reſcript ſent them ſome Time ſince by the King of Poland, in Relation to their Differences with the Citizens; which favourable Circumſtance gave great Reaſon to hope, that the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor of Poland, who were expected there on the 3d of next Month, would ſoon terminate, in an amicable Manner, the Troubles that have ſo long ſubſiſted in that City.

Franckfort, Oct. 29. The Proteſtants eſtabliſhed here, ſeem now more ſolicitous than ever to obtain Leave for building themſelves a Church within the Walls of this City; to which Purpoſe they have renewed their Repreſentations to the Court of Vienna, and to the Diet of the Empire, in ſuch ſtrong Terms, as makes it believed that Affair will ſoon end in their Favour. A large Body of Troops belonging to the Circle of the Upper Rhine, which have been for ſome Time paſt in Garriſon at Philipsbourg, arrived here towards the End of laſt Week, and are now actually new Cloathing. Laſt Tueſday Morning a Courier paſſed by this City; he came from the Hague, and was going to Carlſruhe, to carry the melancholy News of the Death of the Prince of Orange to the Margrave of Baden Dourlach.

Bruſſels, Nov. 1. The Town Council, and the different Bodies of Tradeſmen of this City, have agreed, in a General Aſſembly, to the new Duty propoſed by this Government upon Proviſions. The Price of Corn, which roſe conſiderably ſome Time ſince in this Province, begins now to fall; but 'tis feared that of Fleſh Meat, which alſo goes at a very high Price, will ſtill continue dear, on Account of the Scarcity of it; ſo that the Regency have thought proper to poſtpone the Orders they were about to iſſue for prohibiting the Importation of Fiſh into theſe Provinces. They are continuing to make the neceſſary Preparations for the Reception of Prince Charles of Lorrain our Governor-General, who is expected here on the 15th Inſtant at fartheſt.

Hague, Nov. 6. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante has appointed M. Vierſſen, Major of the Regiment of Foot of Glinſtra, to be a Lieutenant Colonel; M. Logau, Captain in the Regiment of Lindman, to be Major to the ſaid Regiment; and M. Chaſtillon to be a Captain in the Regiment of Grenadiers of Lieutenant General de Villegas.

Whitehall, November 2.
